

MUSICA IN CASA

2018/19

A series of intimate house concerts in support of the Vancouver Chamber Choir's fundraising efforts

Albertina Chan, harp with special guest Dolores Scott, mezzo-soprano

Enjoy an evening of music for harp by Hindemith, Ravel, Fauré, Debussy and more, accompanied by fine wines of the south Okanagan and exquisite cheeses from les amis du FROMAGE.

Albertina Chan is a versatile harpist, performing the traditional repertoire along with anything different and off-beat in and around her hometown of Vancouver. She has performed with the VSO, Music on Main, the Erato Ensemble, the Vancouver Chamber Choir, the Vancouver Film Orchestra and the Vancouver Opera Orchestra, and received the Jessie Award for Significant Artistic Achievement for her performance in Patrick Street Productions' The Light in the Piazza.

Mezzo-soprano Dolores Scott has performed in an extraordinarily diverse variety of styles and settings: opera, music theatre, symphony orchestra, early music and chamber choir. She currently serves as Artistic Director of the Young People's Opera Society of BC.
